MESSAGE FROM RT REVD TREVOR WILLMOTT – BISHOP OF DOVER

Dear Friends,

As you will know, Fr Kevin Northover, Rector of Vale Church, has been under a great deal of pressure over these past months, to the extent that he has had to stand back from the exercise of public ministry.

After taking advice and talking at length with him and, for the sake of his health, Fr Kevin has decided to explore the possibility of taking early retirement. As soon as a retirement date has been agreed, he will return to Guernsey in order to facilitate his move. That will provide an opportunity for the Community to express their thanks and bid him farewell. I very much hope to be able to join you myself for that event. For now, I would ask you to continue to observe his privacy and continue to hold him in your prayers.

With my blessing +Trevor

ALL SOULS SERVICE

Sunday 1st November at 6.00pm at St. Matthew's Church, we will be having a joint 'Iona Type' All Souls Service to remember our loved ones who have died. There will be a list at the back of church for the next few Sundays so that you can write the names of anyone you want remembered at this service. During the service there will be a chance to light a candle in remembrance of your loved ones and the list of names will be read out. Iona is an island off the west coast of Scotland. The Iona Community is a Christian community with its own distinctive Celtic Christianity. The music, hymns and readings are reflective and beautiful. This creates a wonderful atmosphere in which to remember those we have loved and who have loved us.
